Jesus is Coming Again-Outline

As we wait for Yeshua to return, we must be alert, faithful, serving, expectant, enduring, patient, righteous, and evangelistic.

I. Introduction

II. Essential Part of His Work
   A. To Fix a Spoiled Creation: Romans 8:21–23
   B. To Fulfill the Covenant Promises of God: Acts 3:19–21; Micah 4:1–4
   C. Required by Messianic Prophecy
      1. Foretold by Prophets: Daniel 7:13-14
      2. Foretold by Himself: John 14:3
      3. Foretold by Apostles: 1 Timothy 6:13-15

III. What is the basis for the Second Coming?
   A. Introduction
   B. The Basis of the Second Coming—Selected Scriptures

Supplementary Material

Messianic Miracles

Type #1: Any Man’s Miracles
These were miracles that could be done by any man empowered by the Holy Spirit.

Type #2: Messiah’s miracles
Under the heading “Messiah’s Miracles,” there were three miracles that only the Messiah could perform.
1. He would be able to heal those afflicted with Leprosy.
2. The Messiah would be able to heal a person born blind.
3. The Messiah would be able to cast out a demon that causes the victim to be mute.

The Unpardonable Sin
The national rejection of the Messiahship of Jesus while He was physically present on the grounds that He was demon possessed.\(^2\)

---

The Sign of Resurrection

1. The resurrection of Lazarus—John 11
2. The resurrection of the recently dead believers — Matt 27:52-53
3. The resurrection of Jesus himself — Matt 28; Mark 16; Luke 24; John 20
4. The resurrection of the two witnesses during the course of the tribulation—Revelation 11

2. The Basis of the Second Coming
   a. Zechariah 12:10
   b. Hosea 5:15
   d. Hosea 5:15-6:3; Romans 11:26-27
   e. Psalm 80:1–3, 17

IV. Application
   A. We must be alert and serving: Mark 13:33–37
   B. We must eagerly expect his coming: Philippians 3:20–21
   C. We must endure suffering and testing if necessary: 1 Peter 1:6-7
   D. We must wait patiently: James 5:7-8
   E. It is an incentive for personal righteousness: Colossians 3:4–5
   F. It is an incentive for evangelism: Matthew 28:18–20; Romans 1:16